OUR LONDON LETTER.

[REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE OF THE COLONIST.]

LONDON, December 7, 1861.

PROSPECTS OF WAR WITH THE UNITED STATES There is but one topic of conversation in the mouths of men in England at the present moment-and it is of that momentous character that men refuse to be drawn away from it. At last, what everybody has so long feared has come to pass, for we are on the brink of an immediate war with the Northern States of America. Our character as neutrals exposed us to much obloquy from both North and South, but the cry was particularly loud from the former. In my last letter I mentioned that a Confedwar steamer, the Nashville, had arrived at Southampton and landed some Federal prisoners whom she had taken out of the Harvey Birch, a large United States vessel which she had captured and burnt. Of course such an event gave rise to much speculation and furbishing up of authorities on international law, but as soon as Lord Russell refused to grant a search warrant which had been applied for by Capt. Nelson, of the Harvy Birch, on the ground of our neutrality, it became evident that the Government did not consider any breach of international law had been committed by Capt. Pegram of the Nashville in exercising his right of coming into a neutral port to refit: As it turned out there was fortunately a As it turned out there was fortunately a preedent for this course, as a Yankee war vessel, the Juseph Adger, had only a few weeks previously availed herself of the same privilege and refitted at Portsmouth. What effect this decision of our Government to maintain strict neutrality and to grant equal favors to both sides will have in the North we are yet ignorant. It is expected, however, that this country will be assailed with all the Billingsgate, with the use of which the New York journals are but too familiar, and that we shall be held up for universal reprobation from Maine to Washington.

YANKEE OUTRAGE ON THE BRITISH FLAG.
Before, however, this affair was settled, the nation was roused from one end to the other by an outrage of unparallele I audacity, and one, moreover, which bore all the signs of a premeditated insult. [Here our corresof a premeditated insult. [Here our correspondent gives a full account of the seizure of Mas-m and Slidell.—En. Colonist.]
On the 28th of November the Cabinet Council met and on Saturday November 30th the country was informed that the Government had despatched a messenger to Lord Lyons instructing him to demand the immediate restitution of the Southern Commissioners and their Secretaries, together with a suitable apology for the insult offered to the British flag. This decisive action has been halled by the country with the greatest. with a suitable apology for the insult offered to the British flag. This decisive action has been hailed by the country with the greatest satisfaction, and we have now only to wait for the decision of the Federal Government [Since obtained by the delivery up of the prisoners.] If the Federal Government cashier Capt. Wilkes, restore the prisoners and make an apology, we shall be delighted in England. We have not the slightest wish to go to war with the Yankees. In spite of the many affronts they have put upon us we can be described in England. the many affronts they have put upon us we feel that they are nearer and dearer to us ALE-100 cases Pale Ale, in than any other nation of the world. We know that great sufferings will be inflicted on both sides, and that neither party will gain anything beyond hard blows, barren bonor and increased debt and taxation. But such does not appear to be the feeling on their side. Already they are insisting on a substantial recognition of Captain Wilkes' services by promotion to a lofter grade, and all because he had the madness to board an all because he had the madness to board an unarmed vessel and carry off four of her passengers who relied on the protection of a friendly flag. Let us hope, however, that if no sense of morality prevail with the North, that after the first burst of bluster has passed they may look at the matter like men of common sense. For eight months past they have been trying to subdue the Confederate army and resunite the sundered States with posarmy and re-unite the sundered States with your success—may, in many cases, with positive failure and defeat. The only way they can hope to coerce the South at all is from the seaboard, by blockading her cotton and other ports, and so cutting off "the sinews of war" which she would receive by the sale of her cotton. Under such circumstances, prudence would scarcely advice the North to pick a quarrel with the most powerful maritime nation of the globe. It is no exaggeration to say that if such a quarrel should arise the blockage must be larged, and comparatively insignificant American Navy forced either to keep its harbors or suffer itself to be swent from the ocean. Never at comparatively insignificant American Navy forced either to keep its harbors or suffer itself to be swept from the ocean. Never at any time was our fleet so efficient as at present, and never were our sailors more eager to man Her Majesty's ships. Let there be no mistake on this score. The naval reserves have been swelled by the entry of new men since the intelligence of this outrage, all of them eager to have a brush with the Yankees. Also, let it be understood that we do not intend to send small frigates to be crushed by ships of nominally the same number of guns but in reality twice as heavy. We paid too dearly in the last war for our experience to forget it now. A strong fleet will immediately be sent to the American waters if reparation be not made. Our dockyards are busy in fitting out vessels for instant service, and it is not inpossible that the Yankees may have an opportunity of a closer inspection of that noble frigate the Warrior than will be agreeable to them. In addition to these naval preparations, troops, arms and munitions of war are being sent to Canada. Full reliance is placed at home on the gallantry and loyalty of the Canadians should the North be insane enough to attack them. The late Duke of Wellington used to say that in case of a war between Canada and the States that the party which held the command of the Lakes would be victorious. By the recently Duke of Wellington used to say that in case of a war between Canada and the States that the party which held the command of the Lakes would be victorious. By the recently constructed canal our gunboats will be enabled to enter the lakes at pleasure, so that if the illustrious Duke's dictum be true, Canada ought to feel every confidence. Besides these measures of precaution, Royal proclamations have been issued forbidding the export of arms, gunpowder, and materials for making goupowder. This latter precaution was not taken too soon. For it turned out that the Federal Government had bought up nearly 3000 tons of saltpetre, all which was in the market at a price of £123,000, and the order was only just issued in time to prevent its shipment. As most of the saltpetre comes from Oude we have a practical monopoly of this valuable article, and sattperfe comes from Oade we have a practical monopoly of this valuable article, and the Yankees will be reduced to great expense and shifts in finding a substitute for it. All these points are decidedly in our favor, and better by far than any of them is the reported feelings of the Canadians, who, we are tall acceptant a very cordial and honest are told, entertain a very cordial and honest HOLLOWY'S OINTMENT.—Scald Heads, Sore Breasts, Inflamed Nipples.—There is no medical preparation in the world which may be so thoroughly depended on in the treatment of the above ailment as Holloway's invaluable Ointment, and scarcely a day passes in which authentic to the extraordinary efficacy are not received from all parts of the globe. Nothing can be simpler or more safe than the manner in which they are applied, or its action on the body both locally and constitutionally. The Ointment rubbed on the part affected enters the pores just as sait enters meat, and not only gets rid of the local evil, but penetrates to the source of it, and drives it from the system.

Bronchitis.—The usual symptoms of this disease are Cough, Soreness of the Lungs or Throat, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Hectic Fever, a spitting up of Phlegm or matter and sometimes Blood. It is an inflammation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the whole of the Wind Tubes or Air Vessels which run through every part of the Lungs. Jayne's Expectorant immediately suppresses the Cough, Pain, Inflammation, Fever and difficulty of Breathing; produces a free and easy expectoration, and effects a speedy cure.
Sold by CURTIS MOORE and LANGLEY BROS., Victoria.

The Brown's Bronchial Troches are among the acknowledged institutions of the land. What would our ministers, our lecturers, our lawyers do without these invaluable "Troches?" To what an amount of "ahems" and coughs and throat clearings would we be all subjected, were it not for those all-powerful and soothing lozenges? We have tried them and they did us good.—N. T. I am keeping a country store 25 miles from St. John; have a farm of 40 acres of middling land; and sell about £1000 worth of goods a year at about 17 per cent. advance, which is a very small business. I have also a wife, five children, and I am 32 years old, ready to take hold of anything that will suit best. I will give my opinion of this country, and you can compare the two together and tell me whether I can better myself by going there or not: Spring opens from the middle of April to the first of May. We put the crop in as soon as possible, and about the first of August commence having, and have the harvest all in before the middle of October. November the ground freezes up and stays so with snow from one to four feet deep and cold to match. We have frost from full moon in August to full moon in June, which hurts the buckwheat, postatoes, corn, etc., on low lands. Wheat has for the last ten or fifteen years been cut off by weevil; oats hurt with lice and smut; and stock has to be fed from the first of October to the first of June.

P. S.—I notice that the editor of the Colonial Empire receives the Colonist regularly, so the same direction will fetch me an answer all right. Same direction will fetch me an answer all right.

There are enough questions in this letter to write a book about, and we only regret that our space prevents us from answering them as fully as we desire. But as Canadians, New Brunswickers and Nova Scotians are a class of immigrants who are very desirable, inasmuch as they go to work instead of looking for petty offices to starve a family on in keeping up genteel appearances, we shall try to answer briefly our correspondent's questions. Whatever New Brunswick was an Blue-nose lasses, which will be the work of the colonial such domestic angels are picked up so questions. Whatever New Brunswick read of the best copper mines in the world, and in abundance. We have also silver and lead, besides those two potent agents of civilization—coal and tron—in any quantity. The wages of farm hands on Vancouver Island varies from $40 to $75 per month and board. Carpenters get $4 and $5 per day, and laborers $3 per day. Servant women get from $25 to $50 per month and board; get those prices very long, for all such domestic angels are picked up so quickly by bachelors that fine ladies have generally to do their own work with the assistance of an aborigme, mate or female, whom they instruct in domestic arts. With a large immigration of the hard-fisted sex, we can also find room for five hundred or a thousand Blue-nose lasses, which will be try to answer briefly our correspondent's questions. Whatever New Brunswick questions. may be-and we have a tolerably vivid recollection of the Lower Provinces-whether as bad as our correspondent makes it or not, we are persuaded-and we speak after four years' experience in these Colonies—that if the Loyalists of '83 who settled New Bruns-wick, or if the New England fillibusters who took Nova Scotia from the French twenty took Nova Scotia from the French t took Nova Scotia from the French twenty odd years before, had known there was such a healthy climate and such a productive soil in this country as there is, they would have emigrated hither en masse and left Acadia to the Acadians. In the first place, we have in Vancouver Island and Columbia a vast territory as large as ten New Brugswicks. The climate is milder and more equable winter and summer than in the Eastern Provinces. The lowest temperature this winter in Vancouver Island has been 5° above zero; in British Clumbia, 15° below zero. But this has been an unusually severe winter-nothing like it has occurred on this coast perhaps for the last twenty-one set down the return of hard winters at ten, twelve, or twenty-one years. What Vanoouver Island and British Columbia have Got to Offer to Emigrants in New Brunswick.

From time to time we get a great number of letters from abroad from indviduals anxious to learn what inducements these colonies offer to immigrants. As the Governments of these colonies have not yet published the Prize Essays and scattered them around for distribution to inquirers abroad, we have either to throw such communications away or answer them through the Colonist. Last steamer we received a letter from New Brunswick, making sundry inquiries, and as there is no Prize Essay—no Emigration Guide to distribute, we publish it with a few hurried answers, so that New Brunswickers and all others interested may get a copy of the Colonist to send home to their inquiring friends. member.
It was then appointed that a meeting be held at 8 clock, Wednesday evening next, at the Police Court room, to select 1st Lieutenant for No. 1 Company in room of Lieut. J. R. Stewart, promoted. HENRY C. COURTNEY.

Feb. 20th, 1862.

Acting Sec 'y.

The steamer Emily Harris, Capt. Court, arrived yesterday afternoon from Port Moody, Burrard's Inlet, with four passengers and $8000 in gold dust. She left the Inlet on Tnursday morning, and anchored the same night in Plumper Pass. A heavy snowstorm prevailed at New Westminster and only about ten feet of the wall surrounding the Port Moody when the steamer left, and yess yard. The building itself is perfectly safe terday morning Capt. Court found two feet of snow on the deck of his vessel. A pas-

The Otter left the Inlet at noon yesterday, when fifteen inches of freshly-fallen snow were on the ground. The New Westminsterites have held another steamship meeting, and the committee who waited on the Governor stated the manner in which they had been "steamboated" by the Attorney General. Several fiery speeches were made, and after the Stickeen River diggings must remember the passage of a series of resolutions the meeting adjourned. No express was received from above New Westminster. The cause is stated to be attributable to the rotting of the ice, which renders travel unsafe. to insure successful working.

CATTLE STEALING .-- Mr. Tod, of Oak Bay Farm, has lost several steers this winter, supposed to have been shot by land-pirates from San Juan Island. He also has several of their bodies not vital. Coughs, Colds, and Asthma.

These complaints of the chest come on with alarming frequency. The Oliment should assiduously be rubbed at least twice a day on the chest and between the shoulders, when the violence of all symptoms will gradually give way, the breathing become longer, and the oppression less. No medicines are more efficient in chest complaints, none can be used with equal safety and certainty. Both Pills and Oliment are accompanied by very clear and simple directions for using them.

A Man who refus d to have his Leg off. A Man who refus d to have his Leg off.

"From the Kirush Advertiser, June 2nd, 1860."

BENJAMIN COX, Esquire, Magistrate, said in the Board Room at Kiirush, that he knew a man who had been in the Indirmary and was actually turned out as incurable, on his way home to Kiirush, he purchased at Ennis, Holloway's l'ills and Ointment, for, as he said, it could not be worse with him. This man, said Mr. Cox, became by their use as sound and as healthy as any man in the room. These celebrated fills and Ointment will cure any wound, sore, or user, however long standing, if properly used according to the printed directions.

Gout and Rheumatism.

The essence of these diseases lie in the blood, which has, floating through each vessel, the pain-giving poison, which irritates and inflames every tissue it comes in contact with and produces the hot, swellen, elastic enlargement about the joints or characteristic of gouty diseases. The philosophy of cure consists in overcoming this depravity it the blood, which is rapidly purified by the use of the Pills. The Ointment, when rubbed upon the skin, penetrates the system through the pores, acts in unison with the Fills, and soon effects a cure.

Dropsy, Swollen Legs or Ankles.

Dropsy, Swollen Legs or Ankless.

The various kinds of dropsies, whether windy or watery, arise from some obstruction to the free circulation though the blood vessels or lymphatics, or depend on the inflamed state of some secreting surface. Holloway's remedies, of which the efficacy cannot be exaggerated, act directly upon the blood, the absorbents and secretions, with a power that no dropsy however inveterate, can long resist. They regulate the proper flow of blood to every organ, and purity it likewise.—they filter out everything that is morbid or injurious.—they thoroughly regenerate every function, yet potent as they are for good, they are power-less for evil. They do not contain mercury or any noxious substances. They act safely and certainly.
